Re: MUR 7108

Dear Ms. deBeau:

We are in receipt of your letters dated July 25, 2016, directed to (a) Angela Mosley, Treasurer of the Citizens to Elect Gray, (b) Angela Mosley, Treasurer of Citizens to Elect Jay Mosley, and (c) Linda Weaver, in her individual capacity, respectively, along with a copy of the Complaint and attachments. We have been retained to respond to said three letters and complaint. We enclose the Statements of Designation of Counsel executed by Ms. Mosley as Treasurer of said two committees and by Ms. Weaver, respectively. We submit this joint response to said letters by Angela Mosley in her official capacity as Treasurer of said two committees and Linda Weaver in her individual capacity.

The Complainant alleges:

"On or about Sunday, June 19, 2016, somebody left the enclosed flyer at my front door *** the flyer contained not only candidates for offices in St Louis County and Missouri State Representative but also Congressional Candidate Maria Chappelle Nadal. *** My research found that Maria Chappelle Nadal is using money from her State Senate Campaign fund to provide money to Jay Mosely and Rochelle Walton Gray whose campaigns paid for the enclosed flyer. This appears to be a violation of federal election law." (Emphasis mine)

The facts appear to be as follows. The enclosed Amended Statement of Committee Organization for the "Citizens for Maria Chappelle Nadal," dated 2/7/2009 (Exhibit A), filed with the Missouri Ethics Committee that regulates the campaign finance laws for the state of Missouri, indicates that the committee was organized to support Maria Chappelle Nadal as a Democrat for election to the Missouri House of Representatives. It was later amended, as enclosed (Exhibit B), on 2/25/2010, to state that its purpose was to elect Maria Chappelle Nadal as a Democrat to the Missouri State Senate. It was finally amended on 1/28/2015 (Exhibit C) to state that its purpose was to elect Maria Chappelle Nadal as a Democrat to a Statewide Missouri Office in the Democratic primary election scheduled for 8/20/2020. We presume that Maria Chappelle Nadal also established a separate campaign committee to run for the US Congress, named "Chappelle-

Nadal for Congress" in the Democratic primary election held on 8/2/2016 and filed a statement of committee organization with the Federal Election Commission.

The enclosed Amended Statement of Committee Organization of the "Citizens to Elect Gray" (Exhibit D), filed with the Missouri Ethics Commission, states that said committee was organized to support Rochelle Walton Gray as a Democrat for the St. Louis, Missouri County Council in the primary election of 8/2/2016. The enclosed Statement of Committee Organization of the "Citizens to Elect Jay Mosley, LLC" (Exhibit E), states that said committee was organized to support Jay Mosley as a Democrat in the primary election scheduled for 8/2/2016 for the office of State Representative, 68th District.

Documentation attached to the complaint indicates that on 3/17/16, the Missouri statewide candidate campaign committee, "Citizens for Maria Chappelle Nadal," made a campaign contribution to the "Citizens to Elect Gray" in the sum of $25,000.00. The documentation also indicates that on 5/23/2016, said committee, "Citizens for Maria Chappelle Nadal" made a campaign contribution to "Citizens to Elect Jay Mosley, LLC" in the sum of $15,000.00.

Also attached to the complaint was a copy of a door hanger, that indicated that it was paid for by both the "Citizens to Elect Gray" and the "Citizens to Elect Jay Mosley." Although it was the intent to have both campaigns pay for said door hangers, campaign records indicates that only the Citizens to Elect Gray paid for said door hangers in the sum of $356.56. (Exhibit F) Said door hangers references the election of Tuesday, August 2nd. It contains a caption, "Vote Democratic & Elect" and lists five candidates and offices on the door hanger, (1) Rochelle Walton Gray, County Councilwoman, (2) Jay Mosley, State Representative, (3) Maria Chappelle Nadal, Congresswoman, (4) Tony Weaver, Committeeman, and (5) Linda Weaver, Committeewoman. The Weavers were seeking election to the County Central Committee of the Democratic party.

The complaint seems to be that it was allegedly a violation of the Federal Election Campaign laws for "Maria Chappelle Nadal, Congresswoman," to be included among the candidates for state, county and political party office, in the democratic primary, listed on the door hanger, solely because she is a candidate for federal office, while the other candidates were seeking state, county and political party offices and/or due to the fact that her statewide campaign committee had made campaign contributions to the two candidate committees that the door hanger indicated had paid for the door hangers.

It is common practice for state, local and party campaign and candidate committees to include both federal, state, county and political party candidates that are being endorsed by the committee on campaign materials when elections are conducted. It does not cost a candidate for election to a particular office anything additional to print a campaign piece that includes not only the candidate paying for the campaign piece, but other candidates for different federal, state, county and political party office that the candidate, printing the campaign piece, determines to endorse and support for nomination or election to federal, state, county or political party office, on the same election date in which the candidate paying for the campaign piece stands for election or nomination to office. This practice has gone on for over a hundred (100) years. I am enclosing copies of four different campaign pieces that were paid for and distributed by four different candidates or campaign committees, other than the Citizens to Elect Gray and the Citizens to Elect Jay Mosley, during the August 2, 2016, democratic primary election held in St

Louis County, Missouri, that supported federal, state, county and political party candidates on the campaign materials. (Exhibits G, H, I & J)

The price charged by the printer for a door hanger order was not based on the number of candidates listed on the door hanger but was based on the number of door hangers being ordered. Thus, the Citizens to Elect Gray did not incur any increase in the cost of the door hanger to include not only Maria Chappelle Nadal, Congresswoman, on the door hanger, but the other candidates who were listed thereon, i.e., Jay Mosley, State Representative, Tony Weaver, Committeeman, and Linda Weaver, Committeewoman, along with Rochelle Walton Gray, county councilwoman. Basically, there was no separate, distinct and direct cost incurred by the Citizens to Elect Gray, in the printing of said door hanger, that may be identified as a separate, distinct or direct cost or expenditure in support of Maria Chappelle Nadal as a candidate for Congresswoman. The Citizens to Elect Gray would have paid $356.56, in the printing of said door hanger, if the only candidate on the door hanger was Rochelle Walton Gray or if she included on the door hanger, Jay Mosley, Tony Weaver, Linda Weaver and Maria Chappelle Nadal. Thus, there could not be nor was there any violation of the Federal Campaign Finance Laws by neither Chappelle Nadal For Congress, Citizens for Maria Chappelle Nadal, Citizens to Elect Gray nor Citizens to Elect Jay Mosley in that there was no direct, separate or distinct expenditure of funds in support of Maria Chappelle Nadal for the Democratic nomination for Congress.

Moreover, there was no coordination, agreement or direction given to Rochelle Walton Gray nor Jay Mosley nor to their campaign committees by Maria Chappelle Nadal that they were to include her congressional candidacy on said door hanger or on any other campaign materials in exchange for the campaign contributions from her statewide campaign committee to their respective campaign committees. Moreover, she did not supply the photo, but instead the photo was downloaded from the internet without any communication to or from her whatsoever. The political organization of which Gray, Mosley and the Weavers are members determined to support Chappell Nadal based on dissatisfaction with the incumbent congressman and it was at the request of said organization's leadership that Chappelle Nadal's candidacy for congress was included on said door hanger along with those of Gray, Mosley and the Weavers.

Moreover, we believe that as a matter of free speech, a state campaign committee can support a candidate for federal office without violation of the federal election laws, especially where there is no direct or increased costs or expense associated with that support.

We trust that the aforesaid adequately responds to said complaint. If you are in need of additional information, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Elbert A. Walton, Jr.
